Explanations

It has been decided to resume the trading of Umpaş Holding A.Ş. shares on 19/12/2022 by considering that the financial reports which caused the suspension on 19/10/2021 have been disclosed by the company and there is no remaining issue that would require the continuation of the suspension.

Free margin (no upper and lower price limits) will be applied for UMPAS.E until the first trade. Price of the first trade is to be determined as the base price and this base price will constitute the basis for determination of the price margins (upper and lower price limits) for the rest of the session.

Market and market to limit order types will not be available until the end of the session wherein the base price is determined.
