Explanations

As a part of the legal calendar of the 21st Term Plants Collective Labour Agreement negotiations between our company and Petrol-İş (Labour Union), Petrol-İş decided to go on strike as of 10 March 2020 and has announced it in our plants operating in the chemical business line.

In response to the strike decision, as a part of the legal calendar of the ongoing Collective Labour Agreement negotiations, our Company's Board of Directors decided unanimously to go on lockout at the meeting held on 10 March 2020.

Lockout decision was announced on 10 March 2020 (today) in our plants operating in the chemical business line.

The negotiations on Plants Collective Labour Agreement negotiations with the Labor Union still continue within the legal frame.
