Pre-Agenda Items

ARTICLE 9 – The chairperson of the meeting will have the meeting agenda read to the general assembly. The chairperson will ask if there is any objection to the order of agenda items and submits any objections to the vote of the general assembly. Order of agenda items may be altered upon affirmation by the majority of the votes present at the meeting.

Agenda and Discussion of Agenda Items

ARTICLE 10 – (1) The agenda for the ordinary general assembly meetings must include the following:

a) Opening of the meeting and establishment of the chairing authority.

b) Discussion of the annual report prepared by the board of directors, the audit report where the company is subject to audit and the financial statements.

c) Release of the members of the board of directors, and auditors, if any.

d) Upon expiry of the relevant term, election of the members of the board of directors and the auditor where the company is subject to audit.

d) Determination of honorary fees, bonus payments, etc. payable to the members of the board of directors.

e) Determination of the use of distributable profit and its distribution.

f) Discussion of amendments to the articles of association, if any.

g) Other matters requiring discussion.

(2) The agenda for the extraordinary general assembly meetings is constituted by the reasons necessitating such Meeting.

(3) Save for the exceptions listed below, non-agenda items cannot be discussed or resolved upon at the Meeting:

a) New items can be added to the agenda by the unanimous approval of all shareholders of the Company.

b) Request for a special audit as per Article 438 of the Law will be decided on by the shareholders' general assembly irrespective of such request being excluded from the agenda.

c) Dismissal of members of the board of directors and the appointment of new directors are deemed to relate to the discussion of year-end financial statements and therefore will be decided on by the shareholders' general assembly irrespective of such item not being explicitly mentioned in the agenda.

d) Even if there is no relevant agenda item, dismissal of members of the board of directors and the appointment of new directors due to just causes such as corruption, incapacity, violation of loyalty to the Company, inability to perform due to director duties assumed at several other companies and undue influence can be included in the agenda upon approval of the majority of those present at the Meeting.

(4) An agenda item that is already discussed and resolved cannot be made subject to further discussion or a new resolution unless the shareholders that are present at the meeting unanimously decide otherwise.

(5) Items that result from an audit or otherwise requested by the Ministry of Customs and Trade must be included in the agenda.

(6) Those calling for the Meeting also determine the meeting agenda for the meeting.

Speaking at the Meeting

ARTICLE 11 – (1) Shareholders and others concerned willing to speak on the agenda item under discussion will notify the Chairing Authority of their request. The Chairing Authority will inform the Meeting of those who will take the floor and provides such persons the right to speak in order of application. If the relevant person whose turn has come is no longer present at the Meeting his/her right to speak will no longer be valid. All speeches are to be made from the area allocated for such use and must be addressed to the shareholders' general assembly. Speakers are allowed to exchange their turns to speak. If the speaking time is limited, the person whose time has expired can only continue his/her speech to the extent the next speaker allows and in any event limited with the time limit allocated for the next speaker. Speech time cannot be extended in any other way.

(2) The chairperson may give the floor to the members of the board of directors and the auditor, upon their request, irrespective of the order of the speaker list.

(3) The time for speeches will be determined by the shareholders' general assembly based on the proposal by the chairperson or the shareholders, depending on the number and importance of agenda items and the number of speakers willing to speak. In such instance the Meeting must first vote whether applying time limits is necessary and then decide on what the time limit should be if the first decision requires time limitation.

(4) With respect to the transmission of opinions by those attending the meeting through electronic means as per Article 1527 of the Law and the relevant provisions of the applicable law apply.

Voting and Voting Procedure

ARTICLE 12 – (1) Before voting begins, the chairperson will announce the matter that is put into vote of the shareholders to the Meeting. If a draft resolution is to be voted, voting can start only after the draft resolution is put into writing and read to the shareholders' general assembly. After an announcement on the start of the voting procedure a right to speak can be requested only on procedural matters. In this context, any shareholders who have not been allowed to speak despite his/her request will be allowed to speak. However; no speeches will be allowed once voting begins.

(2) Votes on matters discussed at the Meeting can be cast by a show of hands, standing up or separately indicating favorable and against opinion. The votes are counted by the Chairing Authority. The Chairing Authority may, at its discretion, authorize the necessary number of persons to help with the counting of the votes. Those who do not show hands, not standing up or making no statements are deemed to cast an "against" vote in respect of the matter that is put to vote.

(3) With respect to the voting of those attending the meeting through electronic means as per Article 1527 of the Law and the relevant provisions of the applicable law apply.

Preparation of the Meeting Minutes

ARTICLE 13 – (1) The Chairing Authority will sign the list of attendees indicating the shareholders or their representatives, and the number, group and nominal value of the shares they represent; the questions raised and answers provided at the Meeting will be summarized; and the decisions at the Meeting indicating the number of votes in favor and against for each decision will be indicated in the Meeting minutes that must be prepared in accordance with the Law and the applicable regulations.

(2) The Meeting minutes will be drafted on location by typewriter, computer or in legible handwriting. Whenever computer is used the Meeting location must also have a printer allowing the minutes to be printed.

(3) The Meeting minutes will be prepared in at least two originals and each page of each original will be signed by the Chairing Authority, and the Ministry Representative, if any.

(4) The minutes must indicate the commercial title of the Company, the date and location of the Meeting, the total nominal value and number of shares in the Company, the total number of shares represented at the Meeting, the identity of the Ministry Representative and the date and number of such Representative's authority letter, if any, and the method of announcement for the Meeting.

(5) Number of votes cast relating to decisions adopted at the Meeting must be explicitly indicated in the meeting minutes in numbers and letters to avoid any hesitation.

(6) The identity of the shareholders voting against a decision and their dissenting view will be included in the Meeting minutes at their request.

(7) If the dissenting view is provided in writing, such document will be annexed to the Meeting minutes. The minutes will indicate the identity of the dissenting shareholder and that the dissenting view is annexed to the minutes. The annexed document will also be signed by the Chairing Authority, and the Ministry Representative, if any.

Matters at the end of the Meeting

ARTICLE 14- (1) The chairperson will deliver an original copy of the Meeting minutes and other documents relating to the Meeting to a member of the board of directors. Such delivery will be evidenced by a written document.

(2) The board of directors are required to submit a notarized copy of the minutes to the Trade Registry for registration and announcement of the meeting minutes within fifteen days following the meeting.

(3) For Companies that need to establish websites, the Meeting minutes must be announced on the relevant Company website within fifteen days following the meeting.

(4) The chairperson further provides a copy of the list of attendees, the agenda and the Meeting minutes to the Ministry Representative in the event of his/her attendance.

Electronic Participation at the Meeting

ARTICLE 15- In case electronic participation at the Meeting is enabled as per the provisions of Article 1527 of the Law, the transactions by the board of directors and the Chairing Authority are undertaken in accordance with the said Article and the applicable legislation.

SECTION THREE Miscellaneous and Final Provisions

Documents relating to the Participation of the Ministry Representative and the Meeting

ARTICLE 16 – (1) For Meetings that require the presence of a Ministry Representative, provisions of the "Regulation on the Procedures and Principles Relating to General Assembly Meetings and Ministry Representatives to Attend Such Meetings" with respect to the attendance of the Ministry Representative and the duty and authority of such Representative are reserved.

(2) The provisions of the said Regulation apply to those eligible to attend the Meeting, the preparation of the list of attendees, documents relating to the appointment of proxies and the meeting minutes.
