of obtaining the written approvals of at least the majority of the total number of members. Bringing the same proposal to all members of the Board of Directors shall be a requirement for any resolution so taken to be valid. Approvals need not be on the same paper; however, for the resolution to be valid, all papers bearing the approval signatures must be affixed to the Board of Directors minute book or transformed into a decision containing the signatures of those that agree to it.

Article 11: DIVISION OF TASKS, DELEGATION OF REPRESENTATION AND MANAGEMENT AT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

In the event that a chairman of the Board of Directors was not elected by the General Assembly, the chairman of the Board of Directors and a deputy chairman to represent him/her in his/her absence shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The deputy chairman of the Board of Directors shall also be authorized to exercise the powers vested by the Turkish Commercial Code in the chairman of the Board of Directors regarding convocation of meetings and information requests by the members of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall be authorized to transfer management in part or in full to one or more persons (managers) that may or may not be members of the Board of Directors through an internal directive it shall draw up as per article 367 of the Turkish Commercial Code. The Board of Directors shall assign the powers and responsibilities to the managing members through this internal directive and may transfer any power and responsibility at the disposal of the Board of Directors to the relevant persons subject to the conditions, provisions and limitations to be determined, again, by the Board of Directors, and may modify and amend or withdraw all or part of these powers when deemed necessary. This is without prejudice to Article 371, 374 and 375 of the Turkish Commercial Code.

Within the framework of article 370 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the Board of Directors may delegate its representative authority to one or more persons that are members of the Board of Directors or that need not be shareholders or members of the Board of Directors. In the latter case, however, at least one member of the Board of Directors must hold the representative authority. Unless a special resolution is taken by the Board of Directors, any two members of the Board of Directors that are not independent may bind the Company within the framework of the Capital Markets Board regulations in all respects with their conjoint signatures under the Company title.

The Board of Directors shall be authorized in the sharing of the management and representative duties as mentioned.

The Board of Directors may establish on the topics it may deem suitable consultation, coordination, audit, and similar committees and subcommittees comprised of its members and/or non-members. The meeting organization, working, and reporting principles of the chairman and members of the committees shall be set out, regulated, and amended by the Board of Directors.

Article 12: REMUNERATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS and COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Within the scope of the relevant provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Markets Board regulations, financial rights such as attendance fees, wages, bonuses or premiums may be paid to the members of the Board of Directors and to the committee members indicated in Article 11 for the services they render as members of the Board of Directors and committee members. The form and amount of the payments made to the Members of the Board of Directors, also including the managing members, for their membership to the Board of Directors shall be determined by the General Assembly while the form and amount of the payments to be made to the committee members for their services as committee members shall be determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with the legislation. Share certificate options or payment plans based on Company performance shall not be used in the remuneration of the independent members of the Board of Directors.

Article 13 - AUDITING

Respective provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Market Regulations are applied for auditing the Company and other issues set forth in the legislation.
