TERM OF COMPANY

Article 5

The legal term of the company is unlimited.

CAPITAL

Article 6

The company accepted the registered capital system in accordance with the provisions of the CMB and switched to this system upon the authorization of the CMB, dated 23.09.2021 and numbered 49/1395.

The registered share capital of the Company is 550,000,000 (five hundred and fifty million) Turkish Liras, and is divided into 550,000,000 (five hundred and fifty million) shares, each with a nominal value of 1 (one) Turkish Lira.

The share capital registered by the CMB is valid for 5 years (2021-2025). Although the registered share capital has not been reached by the end of 2025, it is obligatory to obtain authorization for a new period not exceeding 5 (five) years from the date of general assembly, by obtaining permission from the CMB, for the registered capital or a new registered amount. If the said authorization is not obtained, no capital increase can be made with the decision of the Board of Directors.

The issued capital of the company is 243.100,000 (two hundred forty three million one hundred thousand) Turkish Liras and it has been fully paid up, free of collusion. The capital is divided into 243.100,000 shares, each worth 1 Turkish Lira, of which 66,000,000 are Group A registered shares and 177,100,000 are Group B bearer shares.

Group A shares have the privilege to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and to vote in the General Assembly, provided that the ratio represented by the total of Group A shares in the Company's issued capital is at least 10% (including 10%). Group B shares have no privileges. The privileges of the privileged shares are specified in the relevant sections of the Articles of Association. In the event that the ratio of Group A shares represented in the Company's issued capital falls below the limit of 10%, the privileges to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors and vote at the General Assembly shall have been automatically revoked, as of the date of the legal transaction leading to the aforementioned condition. In addition, at the first general assembly meeting to be held upon the realization of this condition, the Articles of Association shall be amended and the share groups and the references to share groups shall be removed.

The Board of Directors is authorized to take decisions, when deemed necessary, on increasing the issued capital by issuing new shares up to the registered share, issuing privileged shares and restricting the rights of privileged shareholders, restricting the shareholders' right to purchase new shares and issuing shares above or below the nominal value between the years of 2021 and 2025, in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code, CML and Capital Markets Legislation. The authority to restrict the right to buy new shares may not be used in a way that causes inequality among the shareholders.

No new shares are issued unless the issued shares are fully sold and they are paid, or unless the unsold shares are revoked.

The Company's capital may be increased or decreased, if necessary, in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code (TCC) and Capital Markets Legislation. For new shares, Group A shares are issued in exchange for Group A shares and Group B shares are issued in exchange for Group B shares, unless otherwise is decided by the Board of Directors. In the event the right of all existing shareholders to purchase new shares is restricted in capital increases, the Group B shares shall be issued.

In the capital increases of publicly held companies, bonus shares shall be distributed to the existing shares on the date of increase.

The shares representing the capital shall be monitored in line with dematerialization principles.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND TERM

Article 7

The business and administration of the company is carried out by a Board of Directors consisting of at least 5 (five) and at most 10 (ten) persons to be elected by the General Assembly in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Markets Legislation and the regulations of the CMB.

The General Assembly on Privileged Shares, which consists of Group A shareholders, shall convene to determine the candidates to be nominated to the Board of Directors before the date of General Assembly when the Board of Directors are elected. Members of the Board of Directors to be nominated by Group A shareholders shall be determined by majority of votes among the candidates nominated by each Group A shareholders. The names of the Board of Directors candidates shall be notified to the Company before the date of general assembly meeting. In the event that the privileged shareholders do not agree with a majority of votes on the candidates to be nominated for the Board of Directors, the names proposed by each privileged shareholder in the General Assembly on Privileged Shares shall be notified to the Company before the date of general assembly meeting.

The number and qualifications of the independent members to take office in the Board of Directors shall be determined in accordance with the Capital Markets Legislation, especially the regulations of the CMB on corporate management. The members of the Board of Directors to be elected among the candidates nominated by the Group A shareholders shall be among the members other than the related independent members.

Members of the Board of Directors are elected for a maximum of 3 (three) years. Members of the Board of Directors whose election period has expired can be re-elected. In the event that one of the members of the Board of Directors becomes vacant, the Board of Directors shall temporarily appoint a member for the vacant membership to be submitted to the approval of the first General Assembly meeting and to serve until this meeting. Instead of the member of the Board of Directors nominated by the A Group shareholders, the candidate proposed by the majority of the members of the Board of Directors elected by the nomination of the Group A shareholders shall be appointed with the approval of the Board of Directors. The member whose appointment is approved by the General Assembly shall complete the term of office of his/her predecessor. Members of the Board of Directors may be dismissed at any time by the decision of the General Assembly, if there is a relevant item on the agenda or for a justified reason even if there is no item on the agenda. In the event that a legal person is elected as a member of the Board of Directors, only one real person determined by the legal person shall be registered and announced on behalf of the legal person, along with the legal person. A legal person who is a member of the Board of Directors may replace the person registered in his/her name at any time. In the event that the independent member loses his/her independence, resigns or becomes unable to fulfill his/her duties, the regulations in the Capital Markets Legislation and the corporate management principles of the CMB shall be followed.

The Board of Directors shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman among its members at the first meeting.

The formation, duties and working principles of the committees that the Board of Directors is responsible for, including the early risk detection committee, shall be carried out and issued in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code, CML, corporate management regulations of CMB and other relevant legislation. The Board of Directors shall establish, when deemed necessary, committees and sub-committees in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Markets Legislation.

The remunerations of the members of the Board of Directors shall be determined by the General Assembly. The General Assembly is authorized for the financial rights, except for wages, to be granted to the members of the Board of Directors. The remuneration of the independent members of the Board of Directors shall be determined in accordance with the Capital Markets Legislation.

MANAGEMENT AND REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 8

Unless transferred, the management and representation of the company shall be performed by the Board of Directors. Legal provisions are reserved. The Board of Directors is authorized to take decisions on all kinds of business and transactions required for the realization of the Company's business, except those authorized by the general assembly as per the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Markets Legislation and other relevant legislation and the Articles of Association.

The Board of Directors may be authorized to transfer the management partially or completely to one or more members of the board of directors or to a third party, in accordance with an internal directive to be issued pursuant to the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 367. This internal directive regulates the management of the company, defines the tasks required for this, indicates their location, specifically determines who is responsible to whom and who is responsible for providing information. Upon request, the Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders and creditors who convincingly demonstrate their interests worth protecting, in writing, about this internal directive.

In order for any contract or document to be concluded by the Company to be valid, it shall bear the signature of the person or persons authorized to represent the Company under the Company title.

Unless a notarized copy of the decision showing the persons authorized to represent and their representation is registered and announced in the trade registry, the transfer of representation authority shall not be valid. Restriction on the authority to represent does not apply to third parties in good faith. However, the registered and announced restrictions on the exclusive use and allocation of the representative authority only for the works of the head office or a branch are valid.

In accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 370/2, the Board of Directors may transfer its authority to represent to one or more executive members or to third parties as a manager. At least one member of the Board of Directors must have the authority to represent.

The Board of Directors may appoint members of the Board of Directors who are not authorized to represent or those who are bound to the Company by service contract as commercial representatives or other merchant assistants with limited authority. The duties and authorizations of those who are appointed in this regard shall be clearly identified in the internal directive to be issued in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 371/7. In this case, the registration and announcement of the internal directive is obligatory. Authorized commercial attorney or other merchant assistants shall be also registered and announced in the trade registry.

The duties and authorizations of the Board of Directors regulated in the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 374 and non-transferable duties and authorizations regulated in the Article 375 are reserved.

Pursuant to the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 392, every member of the board of directors may request information, ask questions and make examinations about all business and transactions of the Company. The rights of the members of the Board of Directors arising from the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 392 may not be restricted or revoked.

BOARD MEETINGS

Article 9

The Board of Directors shall convene as and when required by the business of the Company. Meetings of the Board of Directors can also be held at the Company's registered office or, if the majority of the Board of Directors agrees, at another place to be determined within or outside of Turkey. The members may attend the meetings of the Board of Directors in person or may attend these meetings electronically in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code, Article 1527. The Company may establish an Electronic Meeting System that will allow the beneficiaries to attend and vote in these meetings electronically, pursuant to the provisions of the Communiqué on Electronic Meetings in Commercial Companies, Except for Joint Stock Company General Assemblies, and may also get services from systems designed for this purpose. In the meetings to be held, the beneficiaries shall be able to use their rights specified in the relevant legislation within the framework specified in the Communiqué, in the system established in accordance with this provision of the Company's Articles of Association or in the system where the support service will be received.

If none of the members requests a meeting, the decisions of the Board of Directors may also be taken by obtaining the written approval of at least the majority of the total number of members, for a proposal made by one of the members of the board on a certain subject. The decision to be taken in this way is valid in case that the same proposal is made to all members of the Board of Directors. The approvals do not have to be on the same paper. However, all of the papers containing the approval signatures shall be affixed to the resolution book of Board of Directors, or converted into a resolution containing the signatures of those who accept it and transferred to the resolution book.

The relevant provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the Capital Markets Legislation shall be applied on matters such as the meeting method and agenda of the Board of Directors, invitation to the meeting, voting, meeting and quorum of decision.
