Explanations

Our Bank's Deputy General Manager Mr. Mehmet Hakan Atilla has been convicted by the Jury for some of the crimes attributed to him at the first trial stage of the case in the United States. The legal process has not yet been concluded and Mr. Mehmet Hakan Atilla has right to appeal against this decision.

As a matter of fact, neither has our Bank been a party to the case nor is there administrative or financial decision taken against our Bank by the Court.

We would like to remind that to make news which discredit our Bank and damage its reputation based on the decision of the jury regarding our Deputy General Manager about the judicial process which is not yet concluded would be against the principles of the article titled "Protection of Reputation" of the Banking Law.

Our Bank always adheres sensitively to national and international regulations in all its business and transactions and puts utmost effort to improve its compliance policy further within the framework of international standards.

No mechanism, method or system other than those in the existing regulations and those known to and followed by all other banks in foreign trade practices have been used by our Bank when offering banking services. The foreign trade transactions and money transfers are carried out in an open and transparent manner which can be monitored by the related authorities on the system. Our Bank is always going to maintain its policy of transparency in the transactions and compliance to international regulations decisively.

We kindly bring to the public attention that our Bank, which has been providing services to the economy of our country for 80 years, is continuing its operations, and will to do so in the future, in accordance with national and international regulations in a strong, reliable and uninterrupted manner as it did in the past.

In case of any contradiction between the Turkish and English versions of this public disclosure, the Turkish version shall prevail.

We proclaim that our above disclosure is in conformity with the principles set down in “Material Events Communiqué” of Capital Markets Board, and it fully reflects all information coming to our knowledge on the subject matter thereof, and it is in conformity with our books, records and documents, and all reasonable efforts have been shown by our Company in order to obtain all information fully and accurately about the subject matter thereof, and we’re personally liable for the disclosures.
