Explanations

False news of a considerable fine allegedly issued by the U.S. authorities against Halkbank have recently spread on certain social media accounts in a way to deceive the public and investors and to discredit the Bank.

Neither has Halkbank been party to the case settled in the U.S. on May 16, 2018 nor is there any administrative or financial decision taken against the Bank by the Court.

Halkbank has not received any notification of penalties issued by relevant authorities in charge of monitoring the international U.S. sanctions, either.

Posting false news or comments through social media accounts in a way to discredit Halkbank, one of Turkey's major establishments, is against the Banking Law Article on "Protection of Reputation."

Kindly submitted for public and investors' information.

In case of any contradiction between the Turkish and English versions of this public disclosure, the Turkish version shall prevail.

We proclaim that our above disclosure is in conformity with the principles set down in "Material Events Communiqué" of Capital Markets Board, and it fully reflects all information coming to our knowledge on the subject matter thereof, and it is in conformity with our books, records and documents, and all reasonable efforts have been shown by our Company in order to obtain all information fully and accurately about the subject matter thereof, and we're personally liable for the disclosures.
