Explanations

In line with the long-term growth goals of our company;

HEKTAŞ, which carries out R&D studies within the scope of domestic seed production, will take over the rights to sell Ata Siyez and Mergüze, Turkey's first registered einkorn wheat registered by the General Directorate of Agricultural Research and Policies (TAGEM), for five years and will perform their production and sales.

The press release made is available from the following link on our web site.
