The remuneration for Senior Executives consists of two components, which are fixed, and performance based.

Within the scope of remuneration policy, salary and fringe benefits management is organized and implemented as fair, objective, appreciating high performance, competitive, rewarding and motivating.

Fixed salaries of senior executives are determined in accordance with international standards and legal obligations by taking into account the prevailing macroeconomic data in the market, the salary policies prevailing in the market, the size and long-term targets of the Company and the positions of the persons. With the remuneration policy, it is aimed to increase the motivation and loyalty of the employees and to gain qualified employees who will ensure the achievement of the Company's strategic business goals, taking into account the internal wage balances and competitiveness in the market.

Bonuses for senior executives are calculated according to the bonus base, company performance and the individual performance in a way that will support the realization and exceeding of the Company's business goals, and encourage superior performance by rewarding sustainable success. A summary of the criteria is as follows:

- Bonus Base: Premium Baselines are updated at the start of every year and may vary according to the size of the workload of the executive position. Premium baselines are updated in the light of senior executive premium policies in the market.
- Company Performance: The performance of the Company is determined at the end of the year by measuring the financial and operational targets (market share, exports, overseas operations, productivity, etc.) assigned to the Company at the beginning of each year. In determination of the Company's targets, the sustainability of success and the degree to which it incorporates improvements over previous years are the principles taken into account.
- Individual Performance: Determination of individual performance is based on individual and collective objectives and key results determined by Senior Executives together with their teams and managers. In measurement of individual performance, long term sustainable improvement in non-financial areas, compliance with Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) principles is a significant principle.
