The Company may obtain short, medium and long term loans and all kinds of guarantees or credits from local and foreign markets in order to realize its objects and operations and may, for this purpose, mortgage its immovable properties and pledge on movables if necessary.

The Company may grant or accept all kinds of guarantees whether in rem or in personam, in order to exercise and collect its rights and receivables.

Article 5 - Headquarters and Branches

The headquarters of the Company is in Istanbul. The address is Atatürk Mahallesi Turgut Özal Bulvarı No. 7 34758 Ataşehir İstanbul. Any changes in the address of the Company shall be registered with the Trade Registry and published in the Turkish Trade Registry Gazette and also notified to the Ministry of Industry and Commerce and to the Capital Markets Board.

Any notifications sent to the registered and published address are considered to be made to the Company. The Company may open branches in Turkey or abroad provided that it complies with the legal rules and files the necessary applications.

Article 6 - Duration

The Company has been established for an unlimited duration.

Article 7 – Share Capital

The Company has accepted registered share capital system according to Capital Markets Law and transferred into registered share capital system upon approval of the Capital Markets Board numbered 16/440 dated 30/03/2018.

The Company's registered capital ceiling is TL 500,000,000 (Turkish Lira) and divided into 50,000,000,000 bearer shares each with a nominal value of 1 Kuruş (one Kuruş).

The registered share capital ceiling granted by the Capital Markets Board is valid for the years 2018-2022 (5 years). In order for the board of directors to resolve on capital increase after 2022 even if the registered share capital ceiling is not reached until the end of 2022, the board of directors should get authorisation for a term in the general assembly meeting upon obtaining approval of the Capital Markets Board for the previously permitted ceiling or a new ceiling amount. In case the board of directors cannot get such authorisation, capital increase cannot be made through the board of directors' resolution. This authority granted to the board of directors is limited to the capital increases only; general assembly has the authority to decrease the issued capital.

In case the registered capital ceiling is reached within the permitted time period or if it becomes necessary to increase the registered capital ceiling, it will be necessary to obtain new permission from the Capital Markets Board for a new registered capital ceiling.

The capital of the Company is TL 181,054,233 (one hundred eighty one million and fifty four thousand and two hundred thirty three Turkish Liras). This capital has been divided into 18,105,423,300 shares each with a nominal value of 1 Kuruş (one Kuruş).

The shares of the company have been dematerialized in their entirety and are now held in book-entry form. The share capital of the Company may be increased or decreased pursuant to the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the provisions of the Capital Markets legislation, if necessary.

The board of directors, when deems necessary, has right to i) increase the issued capital by issuing new shares up to the registered capital ceiling; ii) limit or abolish shareholders' right to acquire new shares, iii) issue shares premium or shares less than their nominal value.

Shareholders' rights to acquire new shares may be restricted/removed not to cause inequality between shareholders.

In case the share capital is increased without cash injection, the new shares will be distributed amongst the existing shareholders at the date of the increase in proportion to their shares in the company.

Article 8 - Shares

All of the shares representing the share capital are registered and will be tracked in a dematerialized form within the scope of dematerialization principles.

Article 9 - Issuance and Transfer of Shares

The Company may issue registered shares in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the Capital Markets Law.

The cost of the sold shares shall be obtained in cash and in full. New shares may not be issued unless the issued shares are sold and their considerations are paid in full.

The shares of the Company shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and capital markets legislation.

Provided it remains within the legal limitations, the Company may acquire its own shares or accept its own shares as a pledge.

Article 10 - Issuance of Capital Market Instruments

In accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Markets Law and related applicable laws, the Company may issue, for sale to real persons and legal entities or institutions without legal personality in Turkey or abroad, all kinds of redeemable shares or debt instruments such as bonds, financing bonds (commercial paper), asset backed commercial papers, participating redeemable shares, certificates that grant the right to purchase and convert, profit and loss partnership certificates and any other securities and other capital market instruments that may be deemed suitable under capital market legislation.

Provided that the legal permissions have been obtained, the Board of Directors is indefinitely authorized to issue all securities and other capital market instruments in the nature of debt instruments within the scope of this article.

Article 11 - General Assembly Meetings

The General Assembly may convene in ordinary and extraordinary meetings.

The Ordinary General Assembly Meeting shall be held at least once each year and no later than three months after the end of the preceding financial year at the Company headquarters or at another suitable location in the city in which the headquarters are located or at another place where the Company's branch offices are located as may be designated by the Board of Directors without being subject to the condition that it be located within the borders of the city in which the headquarters are located.

During General Assembly meetings, resolutions shall be taken after discussing the matters required under the provisions of articles 408 and 409 of the Turkish Commercial Code and the capital market legislation.

Articles 410 et seq. of the Turkish Commercial Code and the relevant provisions of the capital markets legislation shall apply to invitations with respect to General Assembly meetings.

On the other hand, notice shall not be served on the owners of share certificates which were issued in registered form and are traded on the exchange by means of a letter. At the same time, announcement of the General Assembly meeting shall, in addition to the methods set forth in the legislation, be made at least 3 weeks prior to the date of the General Assembly meeting by all communication means available to the Company, including electronic communication. It is mandatory to make the announcements on the Company's corporate website and Public Disclosure Platform and other locations specified by the Capital Market Board.

The Ordinary General Assembly Meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors or any other person who is authorized to issue such a call pursuant to the Turkish Commercial Code and the agenda of the meeting shall be determined in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and the Articles of Association.

Extraordinary General Assembly Meetings may be convened at any time with 3 weeks' notice upon a call by the Board of Directors or any other person who is authorized to issue such a call pursuant to the Turkish Commercial Code.

The General Assembly meeting announcement to be made on the Company's website shall, in addition the announcements and explanations required as per the legal legislation, announce the content specified in article 1.3.2 of the Capital Markets Board Corporate Governance Principles to the shareholders.

The Turkish Commercial Code and capital market legislation and in particular the provisions of the Regulation on Ministry Representatives, Regulation on Electronic General Assemblies and Communiqué on the Electronic General Assembly System must be complied with in relation to the procedural rules to be implemented with regard to the physical, electronic, personal or via proxy participation of shareholders in ordinary and extraordinary General Assembly meetings, the act of presenting a suggestion, declaring an opinion or casting a vote, the invitation of shareholders to the meeting, the agenda and the procedure to be followed during and after a meeting.

Article 11/A - Electronic Participation in General Assembly Meetings

Those who have the right to participate in meetings of the Company's General Assembly may also participate in such meetings electronically in accordance with article 1527 of the Turkish Commercial Code. The Company may either create an electronic general assembly system that enables right holders to electronically participate in, share their opinions, make suggestions and cast votes in these meetings pursuant to the provisions of the Regulation concerning Electronically Held General Assemblies for Joint Stock Corporations or may purchase services from systems that have been established for this purpose. In any general assembly meetings that may be held, it will be made possible for right holders and their representatives to exercise their rights as specified in the referred Regulation by means of the system established in accordance with this clause of the articles of association.

Electronic participation in General Assemblies shall be realized through the electronic environment provided by the Central Registry Agency (MKK).

Electronic participation and casting of votes in a general assembly gives rise to all the legal consequences of physical participation and casting of votes.

Article 12 - Voting

In General Assembly Meetings, each shareholder's voting rights shall be calculated according to the ratio of the aggregate nominal value of the shares held by the shareholder to the total nominal value of the Company's share capital. Within this context, each share shall entitle its holder to 1 (one) vote.

Votes shall be cast by show of hands. However, upon the demand of Shareholders representing at least 10% (ten percent) of the capital, balloting shall be obligatory. The legal provisions concerning the exercise of voting rights during electronically held general assembly meetings are reserved.

Shareholders may be represented at General Assembly Meetings by proxies, who are not required to be shareholders. Proxies who are Shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to vote the Shares of the shareholders whom they represent separately from their own shares. The granting of representative authority to participate in and exercise voting rights during General Assembly meetings as well as the rules to which such representatives are subject shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and secondary legislation issued on the basis of this Code and capital markets legislation.

Article 13 - Chairman's Panel

The Chairman of the Board of Directors, or in his absence the Vice Chairman or in his absence the representative of the majority shareholder will serve as the Chairman of General Assembly Meetings. The clerk and the vote collector of the General Assembly Meetings are not required to be elected from among the shareholders. The chairman of the meeting may appoint experts to perform the technical transactions for the Electronic General Assembly System during the meeting.

The minutes of General Assembly Meetings shall be promptly translated into English after each meeting and shall be kept in the General Assembly Discussion and Resolution Book together with the Turkish versions.

Internal guidelines concerning the rules and procedures of the General Assembly shall be prepared by the Board of Directors and shall then be registered and announced upon the General Assembly's approval. General Assembly meetings shall be conducted in line with the provisions of these internal guidelines which must not violate the law, secondary legislation and the Company's articles of association.

Article 14 - Meeting and Resolution Quorums

Meeting and resolution quorums for any and all General Assembly meetings shall be governed by the relevant articles of the Turkish Commercial Code and capital market legislation.

Article 15 - Ministry Representative

The presence of a Ministry Representative appointed by the Ministry of Customs and Commerce at all ordinary and extraordinary General Assembly Meetings is mandatory.

Article 16 - Board of Directors

The affairs and management of the Company shall be carried out by a Board of Directors composed of 12 (twelve) members who are elected by the General Assembly from among the shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code.

Where a legal entity is a board member, only one person representing such legal entity, who will be appointed and may be replaced any time by such entity, shall be registered and announced. Only such person registered in the name of legal entity shall attend to the board meetings and vote.

There are executive and non-executive members on the Board of Directors. A non-executive Board member is a person who has no administrative duties in the Company other than his membership on the Board of Directors and does not intervene in the Company's day-to-day flow of business and ordinary activities.

Among the non-executive Board members shall be independent members who possess the attribute of being capable of carrying out their duties without being subject to any influence as per the principles set forth in capital market legislation.

Rules with regard to the number of non-executive and independent members within the Board of Directors, the attributes of such members, the methods of their selection are subject to capital market legislation and in particular the Capital Markets Board Corporate Governance Principles.

In case of a vacancy on the Board due to the death, resignation or withdrawal of a member, the Board of Directors may appoint a new member pursuant to Article 363 of the Turkish Commercial Code to be approved by the General Assembly. The new member may perform his duty until the General Assembly meeting for approval and in case of approval; he continues his office for the remainder of the term of the member he is replacing.

The duties, rights, obligations and responsibilities of the Board of Directors, the election of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, their fees and obligation to deposit a security and any other matter concerning the Board of Directors are governed by the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code.

Article 16/A – Committees

The Board of Directors may form committees to monitor the course of business, to prepare reports on matters presented to it, to implement its decisions or for the purpose of internal controls. Members of the Board of Directors may be included in such committees.

Within this context, the Board of Directors may, without any limitation, form a “Audit Committee”, “Nomination Committee,” “Early Risk Recognition and Management Committee,” “Corporate Governance Committee” and “Remuneration Committee”. Under the Turkish Commercial Code, the formation of an Early Risk Recognition and Management Committee is mandatory.

The manner in which committees to be created within the framework of this article are to be formed, the attributes of the members of such committees, the duties and powers of such committees, the areas of responsibility of such committees, the financial rights granted to the members thereof as a result of their position shall be determined and ascertained by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and the provisions of capital market legislation.

Article 17 - Term of Office and Duties of the Board of Directors

Board of Directors members are elected for a maximum term of 3 years, unless a shorter term is determined at the General Assembly where they have been appointed. A member whose term of office has expired may be re-elected. The General Assembly may, if there is a just cause and it deems necessary, replace the Board of Directors members at any time whether it is in its agenda or not.

The Board of Directors is authorized to pass resolutions for each transaction necessary for the scope of the business of the Company, other than the ones that require the resolution of the General Assembly as per the Articles of Association and the law.

The Board of Directors may, to the extent permitted by the Turkish Commercial Code, delegate its responsibilities and duties entirely or partially to the General Manager, to the Deputy General Manager and to the Senior Managers. In this circumstance, the Board of Directors issues an internal directive in accordance with Article 367/1 of Turkish Commercial Code.

Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 375 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the following transactions can only be conducted via the resolution of the Board of Directors

- a. Employment, dismissal and any alterations to the service agreements or employment contracts of the General Manager (chief executive officer) and Assistant General Managers (including, but not limited to, the chief financial officer, chief operating officers, chief marketing officer) (save as required pursuant to inflationary salary increases or applicable law) and first degree authorized signatories and determination of the working methods, salaries and authorities of these persons,

- s. Change of accounting policy and estimates, other than as mandatorily required and without prejudice to the Accounting Principles of Turkey,
- t. Adoption of or amendment to any employee share allocation
- u. Proposal to the General Assembly for any amendment to the dividend policy of the Company save where mandatorily required under applicable law,
- v. (i) any refinancing of Company's bank debt facilities, or (ii) the signing of any debt facility or facilities having an aggregate size of TL 100m or more (except where such debt facility or facilities are entered into in order to meet liquidity requirements of the Company), or (iii) any amendments to Company's bank debt facilities which alter the terms upon which the shares of the Company can be released from the pledge covering them.

The Board of Directors may appoint the commercial representatives.

With respect to the actions listed above which can be conducted by a decision of the Board of Directors, the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code on the non-assignable powers of the general assembly and the transactions which shall be submitted for the approval of the general assembly as per the provisions of the capital markets board shall be reserved.

Article 18 - Meeting of The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall convene when the business and transactions of the Company necessitate it. The invitations to a meeting of the Board of Directors shall include the date, time, place and agenda of the meeting and shall be sent by the chairman of the Board of Directors or the vice chairman via facsimile, letter or electronic mail at least 3 days prior to the date of such meeting. In addition, during a Board of Directors meeting, the Board of Directors meetings to be held throughout one year may be arranged to adhere to an annual schedule. A contravention of this procedure or schedule shall not affect the validity of the resolution that was passed.

The Board of Directors shall convene at the Company's headquarters. The meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at another place within or outside of the Republic of Turkey.

Provided that none of the members have requested that a meeting be held, within the framework of the fourth paragraph of article 390 of the Turkish Commercial Code it is possible for the Board of Directors to pass a resolution by circulating the text for the resolution.

Those who have the right to participate in meetings of the Company's Board of Directors may also electronically participate in such meetings in accordance with article 1527 of the Turkish Commercial Code. The Company may either create an Electronic Meeting System that enables right holders to electronically participate and cast votes in these meetings pursuant to the provisions of the Communiqué concerning Meetings to be Held Electronically for Commercial Companies other than General Assembly Meetings for Joint Stock Corporations or may purchase services from systems that have been established for this purpose. In any meetings that may be held, it will be made possible for right holders to exercise their rights as specified in the relevant legislation in accordance with the provisions of the Communiqué by means of the system established in accordance with this clause of the articles of association or the system through which support services are being purchased.

If a member does not declare that s/he will physically attend the meeting, a meeting of the Board of Directors may either be wholly held electronically or it may be conducted whereby some members are physically present while other members participate electronically. In such case the meeting and resolution quorums specified in article 19 of these articles of association are applicable exactly as is.

Article 19 - Meeting and Resolution Quorum of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall meet with the attendance of the majority of the total number of members of the Board of Directors and the decisions shall be taken by affirmative votes of the majority of the attendants.

Article 20 - Binding and Representing the Company

The Board of Directors is authorized to represent the Company. Documents to be provided and agreements executed by the Company shall be considered valid if they bear the signatures of two persons authorized to represent the Company under the official corporate title of the Company. In this respect, circulars of the company to be registered and announced in the Trade Registry shall be followed.

Article 21 - Financial Rights of the Directors

An honorarium, salary, bonus, premium and a share of annual profits may be paid to the Directors provided that the amount and/or manner thereof have been determined in a General Assembly resolution.

Share options or payment plans based on the Company's performance cannot be used with regard to the remuneration of independent Board members.

The rules set forth in capital markets legislation must be complied with in regard to the remuneration of senior executives and members of the Board of Directors.

Article 22 - Financial Statements and Independent External Audit

An “Independent Auditor” to carry out the independent audit of the Company’s financial statements and activity report in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and capital market legislation shall be selected by the General Assembly upon a proposal of the Board of Directors as the “auditor” referred to in article 397 et seq of the Turkish Commercial Code and the “independent auditor” referred to in capital market legislation by the fourth month of each operating period and in any case prior to the end of the operating period in which it shall carry out its duties.

Within this context, the Company is required to appoint an “Independent Auditor” that satisfies the terms specified in article 400 of the Turkish Commercial Code, regulations of the Public Oversight, Accounting and Audit Standards Authority and capital markets legislation.

The Auditor shall be registered with the trade registry in accordance with the relevant laws and secondary legislation and the requisite notifications and announcements shall also be made.

The Company is not allowed to accept any consultancy services from the Independent Auditor, the personnel employed by this Auditor or a consultancy company directly or indirectly controlled by this institution in either management or share capital perspective and the personnel employed by the said consultancy company. Consultancy services provided by partners and managers of the Independent Auditor are within the scope of this regulation.

The financial statements and activity reports of the Company shall be prepared in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and the rules set forth in capital markets legislation and within this framework the Turkish Accounting Standards, the Turkish Financial Reporting Standards and comments in line with the rules established by the Public Oversight, Accounting and Auditing Standards Authority as well as the International Financial Reporting Standards and shall be audited in compliance with the Turkish Auditing Standards and international auditing standards.

The Company’s financial statements and reports as well as independent audit reports shall be sent to the relevant authorities and announced to the public in accordance with the principles and procedures established in article 524 of the Turkish Commercial Code and other relevant articles in addition to the capital market legislation.

In the event that the financial statements and reports required by the Capital Markets Board are subject to an independent audit, such independent audit report shall be disclosed to the public in accordance with the provisions specified by the Capital Markets Board.

Article 23 - Announcements

Without prejudice to the provisions paragraph 4 of Article 35 of the Turkish Commercial Code and mandatory provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code regarding announcements and also complying with capital market legislation, announcements concerning the Company are required to be published in the Turkish Trade Registry Gazette, the Public Disclosure Platform, on the corporate website of the Company and through other legally required channels.

The announcements made in relation to decrease of the share capital and liquidation must be made according to Articles 474 and 532 and 541 of the Turkish Commercial Code, respectively.

Article 24 - Amendments to the Articles of Association

The proposals of the Board of Directors for any amendments to these Articles of Association will be discussed in the General Assembly.

The validity of amendments to the Articles of Association and their implementation are subject to the approvals of the Ministry of Customs and Commerce and the Capital Markets Board. Such amendments and the relevant Board of Directors’ resolution shall be announced after being duly certified and registered with the Trade Registry.

Amendments to the articles of association are effective against third persons after such amendments have been registered.

Article 25 – Annual Accounts

The fiscal year of the Company shall commence on 1st January and end on the last day of December.

The first fiscal year shall begin from the date of incorporation of the Company, and end on the last day of December.

Article 26 - Distribution of Profit

The net profit for the period – as reflected in the annual balance sheet – remaining after amounts such as general overhead costs and amortizations, which must be paid or set aside by the Company, as well as any taxes the legal entity is required to pay have been deducted from the income calculated for the Company at the end of the operating period shall be distributed as set forth below after the losses from the previous year have been deducted:

a) 5% is set aside as general legal reserves.

First Dividend:

b) Within the framework of the profit distribution policy to be determined by the general assembly and in line with the provisions of the relevant legislation, the first dividend is set aside from the remainder after having added the amount of the annual donation, if any.

c) Once the amounts stated above have been set aside, the General Assembly is entitled to resolve to distribute a certain percentage of the profit to members of the board of directors, officers, personnel and employees, foundations formed for various purposes and persons and institutions of a similar nature.

Second Dividend:

d) The General Assembly is entitled, at its own discretion, to distribute all or part of the amount remaining after the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) have been set aside from the net profit for the period as the second dividend or to set such amount aside as reserves in accordance with article 521 of the Turkish Code of Obligations.

General Legal Reserves (second distribution):

e) Of the portion to be distributed to shareholders and other persons who participate in the profit, ten percent of the amount remaining once the 5% profit shares paid to shareholders has been deducted shall be added to the general legal reserves in accordance with the second paragraph of article 519 of the Turkish Commercial Code.

Unless the legal reserves required to be set aside as per the provisions of the law have been set aside, no resolution can be passed for the setting aside of the profit share calculated for the shareholders or other reserves, for the carrying forward of profits to the next year or for the distribution of profit to members of the board of directors, officers, personnel and employees, foundations formed for various purposes and persons and/or institutions of a similar nature.

The share of the profits shall be distributed equally to all shares regardless of when such shares may have been issued or acquired.

The Company may distribute dividend advances to its shareholders within the framework of the regulations set forth in the capital markets Legislation. In order to distribute dividend advances, it is necessary for a general assembly resolution to have authorized the Board of Directors, with such authority being limited to the relevant year.

Article 27 - Date of Dividend Distribution

The manner and timing of the distribution of any profit to be distributed, shall be determined by the general assembly upon a suggestion by the Board of Directors.

Any resolution passed by the general assembly for the distribution of profit in accordance with the provisions of these articles of association may not be claimed back.

Article 28 - General Legal Reserves

In accordance with Article 519 of the Turkish Commercial Code, 5% of the net profit of the Company shall be set aside each financial year as a General Legal Reserve until it reaches 20% of the paid up capital of the Company. The provisions of Article 519 of the Turkish Commercial Code are reserved.

If for any reason the General Legal Reserves fall below 20% of the paid up capital of the Company, 5% of the net profit of the Company shall be set aside until the General Legal Reserves reach 20%.

Unless the general legal reserves exceed half of the capital stock, it may be spent exclusively for curing the losses, maintaining operations and the business when business is low, taking precautions to prevent or alleviate the consequences of unemployment.

Article 29 - Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

The Board of Directors may invite the General Assembly to convene in order to discuss the dissolution and liquidation of the Company for any reason or the continuation of the Company. The Company is dissolved on the grounds stated in the Turkish Commercial Code or via a court judgment. Apart from these, the Company is dissolved via a General Assembly resolution within the scope of the legal provisions. In the event that the Company is dissolved for a reason other than bankruptcy or has been dissolved; the General Assembly will appoint the liquidators. The liquidation method, the performance and completion of the liquidation proceedings, authorities and liabilities of the liquidators are determined according to legal provisions.
