Quorum and Decisions

Quorum and Decisions

Article: 31 - The Board of Directors may hold its meetings subject to presence of majority of the full number of its members. Decisions are taken by affirmative vote of majority of the members present in the meeting. Directors are not allowed to vote for and on behalf of each other. In the case of equality of votes, the topic is postponed to the next meeting of the Board of Directors. In the case of equality of votes in the next meeting as well, the motion is deemed to have been refused. Discussions in the Board meetings are regularly recorded by a secretary to be appointed from among Directors or from outside. Meeting minutes are required to be signed by the Directors present in the meeting, and in case of dissenters, the dissenting opinions are also required to be included in the minutes, and signed by the dissenters. Unless one of the Directors specifically requests a meeting, the decisions of the Board of Directors may further be taken as per article 390 of the Turkish Commercial Code by obtaining written consents of at least majority of the full number of members for a written motion issued in the form of a Board decision by any one of Directors on a specific topic. Validity of the Board decisions is subject to their being duly written and signed.

Minutes of Board Decisions

Minutes of Board Decisions

Article: 32 - In meetings of the Board of Directors, the Directors are entitled to request information and explanations about the progress of business or about particular affairs from all and any persons authorized to represent the Bank and to conduct businesses of the Bank. The Board of Directors may even decide to request submission and delivery of books and files to it.

The Directors are not permitted to take part in negotiation of any matters concerning their own personal interests or interests of their relatives as described in article 393 of the Turkish Commercial Code. Upon inclusion of such a matter in the agenda, the relevant Director is under obligation to report his conflict of interest to the Board of Directors and to have such conflict of interest recorded in the meeting minutes. Upon occurrence of the event mentioned in 4th paragraph of article 390 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the event is written in the document of proposal.

Any Director acting in conflict with the rules envisaged in the preceding paragraph is under obligation to indemnify and hold the Bank harmless from all kinds of losses that may be suffered by the Bank due to such conflict of interest. The pertinent provisions of the Banking Law are, however, reserved.

Unless and until they are permitted to do so by a decision of the General Assembly of Shareholders, members of the Board of Directors cannot directly or indirectly enter into any commercial or trading relation with the Bank within the fields of business of the Bank in their own name or in the name of third parties. The provisions of article 396 of the Turkish Commercial Code pertaining to non-competition, and relevant provisions of the Banking Law are, however, reserved.

The Duties and Powers of the Board of Directors

The Duties and Powers of the Board of Directors

Article: 33 - Duties, powers and responsibilities of the Board of Directors are subject to and governed by the principles set forth in the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Markets Law and Banking Law pertaining thereto, and the provisions of this Articles of Association, and the Board of Directors is authorized to take decisions on all and any matters other than the matters specifically requiring a decision of the General Assembly of Shareholders, and to absolutely use its powers of settlement, release, arbitration and waiver, and to decide on topics which are left outside the limits of authorization of the Credit Committee and other committees and General Manager or any other executive in his position.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors is authorized:

I- to prepare, issue and approve an internal bylaws showing which affairs relating to the administration of the Bank may be decided by the General Manager or any other executive in his position, and which affairs may be performed under decisions of the Credit Committee and other committees or the Board of Directors, and how the internal affairs of the Bank will be conducted; and

c) may give mandate for certain transactions but may not transfer the duty of management.

d) is liable, under the provisions concerning the liability of the members of the Board of Directors, to the Bank, shareholders and creditors of the Bank for non or insufficient fulfillment of the obligations imposed or conferred on him. The fact that the General Manager is under the orders and supervision of the Board of Directors does not eliminate this liability.

e) the General Manager and other officials accepted by the law make an oath according to the Banking Code.

Article: 49 - Members of the Board of Directors cannot be held liable for the damages and losses caused by General Manager. Providing, however, that provisions of article 553 of the Turkish Commercial Code pertaining to appointment of incompetent managers, or tolerance shown to harmful acts and transactions of managers, or authorization of managers for topics and matters which are indeed not within the limits of authorization of the Board of Directors are reserved.

Article: 50 - The General Manager has as many assistants as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Such assistants shall act with the powers which the General Manager shall give them. The central organisation of the Bank shall be determined by the Board of Directors according to the principles of business and necessities.

Article: 51 - The General Manager is the head of all the employees of the Bank and all employees take orders and instructions from the General Manager.

Article: 52 - The assistants of the General Manager, Managers, officers in the same rank as a manager and who are given the authority of signature, Chief Legal Counsel, his Assistants and Inspectors who may be self employed persons are appointed upon the proposal of the General Manager and approval of the Board of Directors. The proposal, recompensation, promotion and transfer and removal from office of such persons is subject to the same procedure. However, if the General Manager perceives an administrative necessity and urgency, he may temporarily discharge an officer from office for subsequent submission to the Board of Directors.

The General Manager shall appoint, transfer, recompensate, punish or remove from office employees other than those mentioned above according to the permanent positions approved by the Board of Directors and shall every month prepare a list thereof together with the motives to be presented to such Board.

Article: 53 - The determination of the salaries and remunerations and other rights of the General Manager, Assistant General Managers and other managers, employees and servants shall be subject to a regulation to be prepared by the Board of Directors in accordance with these Articles of Association. Persons who are employed by a contract shall continue to be subject to such contract.

Article: 54 - The Bank's annual budget and permanent positions shall be prepared by the General Management every year until the end of October and shall be submitted to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall finish its inspection on the budget and the permanent positions and communicate the same to the General Management until the end of the year.

Article: 55 - A regulation shall be prepared in accordance with article 53 and other articles of these Articles of Association containing the appointment, promotion, transfer, recompensation, punishment, qualification and other issues concerning the Bank's employees.

Article: 56 - A retirement fund for employees and servants may be formed by the Bank in a way to suit its own structure.

Article: 57 - The Bank may adopt regulations setting the types and amounts of aid to be supplied to employees and servants and their families in case of illness, disability, death, leave and similar cases and to form welfare funds to serve such purpose.

General Assembly

General Assembly

Article: 58 - The General Assembly shall meet in ordinary or extraordinary form in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and these Articles of Association.

Article: 59 - The General Assembly of Shareholders meets for ordinary (regular) and extraordinary (special) meetings subject to pertinent provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the capital markets legislation.

Meeting Place Meeting Place

Article: 60 - The meeting place of General Assemblies is Istanbul where the headquarters of the Bank is located.

The Commissar of the Ministry The Commissar of the Ministry

Article: 61 - Both ordinary and extraordinary General Assembly meetings shall be notified and the agenda and a copy of relevant documents shall be sent to the Ministry of Trade and Industry at least fifteen days before the date of the meeting. The Commissar of the Ministry of Trade and Industry shall be present at all meetings of the General Assembly. Resolutions reached in the absence of the commissar are not valid.

The commissar who is present must sign the minutes.

Meetings of the General Assembly shall be notified to representatives of other institutions who are provided in the law and who are required to be present at such meetings.

Quorum Quorum

Article: 62 - The General Assembly shall meet with the presence of shareholders representing at least one fourth of the Bank's capital, unless provided otherwise by the Turkish Commercial Code. If such quorum can not be reached at the first meeting, another meeting shall be called. Shareholders present at the second meeting are authorised to hold discussions and to reach decisions regardless of the amount of capital they represent.

Shareholders' Voting Right Shareholders' Voting Right

Article: 63 - a) Shareholders use their voting rights in proportion to total nominal value of their shares pursuant to article 434 of the Turkish Commercial Code.

c) None of the shareholders can use his/her voting rights on personal matters or on lawsuits and legal proceedings between himself/herself or his wife/her husband or his/her ascendants and descendants on one side and the Bank on the other side, nor can those who have by any means been involved in the Bank's affairs or businesses use their voting rights on decisions relating to release of the Directors.

Representation Representation

Article: 64 - Shareholders use their rights pertaining to the Bank's affairs and businesses, such as appointment of members to the Bank's bodies, or approval of the Bank's accounts, or distribution of the Bank's profit, in the meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders.

(a) A shareholder may use his voting rights in the meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders either directly himself, or indirectly through a proxy to be appointed from among other shareholders or from outside.

All limitations and conditions specified in the applicable laws with respect to voting by proxy, including, but not limited to, persons authorized to vote as a proxy in the meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders, and number of votes usable by one proxy, are reserved.

(b) Representation power relating to registered share certificates must be given in writing. Format of this writing will be determined and announced by the Board of Directors.

(c) Voting right belongs to the holder of share. However, a possessor authorized to represent may also use the voting right in place of the holder, providing that the representation power is granted by a separate document.

(d) Regulations and guidelines of the Capital Markets Board pertaining to voting by proxy are, however, reserved.

(e) Voting right arising out of a share certificate restricted by a beneficial interest is used by the holder of beneficial interest.

Delivery of share certificates to a third party for use of voting rights in the meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders, with a view to neutralizing any one of restrictions or limitations on voting rights is unacceptable.

Each of shareholders may raise an objection to the Board of Directors against participation of non-eligible persons in a meeting of the General Assembly of Shareholders, and may further have his objections recorded in the meeting minutes of the General Assembly of Shareholders

If persons non-eligible for participation in a meeting of the General Assembly of Shareholders have already voted in a decision taken therein, each of shareholders may, even if he has not previously objected against it, go to the competent court for nullification of such decision; providing, however, that such claim of nullification is dismissed if the Bank proves that their votes have not been effective on the decision.

Persons eligible for participation in meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders of the Bank may participate in these meetings via electronic media as well pursuant to article 1527 of the Turkish Commercial Code. Pursuant to the Regulation on General Assembly Meetings of Joint-Stock Companies To Be Held via Electronic Media, the Bank may either establish an electronic general assembly system enabling the right-owners to participate, express their comments and opinions, raise proposals and motions, and vote in meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders via electronic media, or purchase service from already existing systems established to this end. In all meetings of the General Assembly of Shareholders, the right-owners and their representatives and agents are enabled to use their rights arising out of the provisions of the aforementioned Regulation, through the system established as above.
